

BLESSED BE YE POOR, FOR YOURS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

Jesus said:

"Blessed be ye poor: FOR YOURS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN." (Luke
6:20)

This same verse is rendered "Blessed are the poor in spirit: FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN" in Matthew 5:3 - "poor in spirit" being but the natural outcome of the condition of poverty, WHICH IN THIS LIFE IS ALMOST ALWAYS THE RESULT OF THE OPPRESSION OF THE RICH OVER THE POOR. It is these - the poor in spirit, those whose spirits have been broken by the greed of the wealthy - that Christ is coming "to set things right for" - those who make Nike shoes for the "DAUGHTERS OF BABYLON" for pennies a day in sweatshops scattered across the globe; those who have been chased off their farms in Mexico by American agri-businesses and forced to migrate surreptitiously to the United States to work as "Illegals" picking tomatoes on plantation farms owned by the same companies that chased them off their farms in Mexico; those in this country who work two jobs for minimum wage and still cannot feed their families - or who have been left unemployed or underemployed by the current recession/depression caused by the greed and excess of Wall Street.
