

THE CHRIST OF TODAY'S EVANGELICAL CHURCH

C. Peter Wagner, who styles himself as an apostle in today's evangelical church, says that it is the duty of church leaders to thwart and defeat any "PACIFISTIC, ANTI-WAR mood" from taking hold of the church; the unity of the church is paramount if pacifism is to be defeated, and anti-war sentiment successfully driven from the church.

[Antipas Ministries, which is responsible for this flyer, is NOT part of any church or denomination; it is simply a loose-knit group of Bible-believing Christians concerned about the corrupt relationship that exists today between the Religious Right and the Political Right in this country.]
